Modern slavery statement

DadsHouse has a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and we strive to act ethically and with integrity in all of our business dealings and relationships to ensure that modern slavery is not taking place anywhere within our charity organisation, our premises, or in those we deal with or in any of our supply chains. We will also ensure our approach and stance is clear with any partner organisations.

DadsHouse is governed by Trustees who volunteer their time to help our work. We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business. Our Anti-slavery and Human Trafficking Policy reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all of our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in DadsHouse.

We will treat any breach of our Anti-slavery and Human Trafficking Policy very seriously. For example, any employee who breaches the policy will face disciplinary action which could result in dismissal for misconduct or gross misconduct.

We recognise the importance of maintaining constant vigilance to identify and address any issues associated with slavery and human trafficking
